ADMIRAL HILARY JONES, of our navy, tells the Senate foreign relations committee that in the navy pact Japan and Britain won, and the United States lost. That need not surprise anybody. There were no Anglo-manics or Americo-manics among the Japanese. They knew what they wanted, and if they don't get it, they stop. This country, anxious to appear to have got something, takes anything offered.

ADMIRAL JONES said England always has tried to beat down the American cruiser strength and the eight inch cruisers, most desired by our navy, and by the London pact England has got what she wanted. Of course, if England had not got what she wanted there wouldn't be any pact.

The British have statesmen. You read that the naval conference in London cost Great Britain almost $1,000 a day, which is cheap considering what Britain got.

MR. JULIUS MILLER, borough president of Manhattan, New York City, plans to supply reasonable housing to people of moderate means and keep the population from leaving his own borough.

First he planned the new style houses, then obtained a pledge from 25 of the most important building corporations and individuals in New York to cooperate with him in the building.

Officials in several hundred cities in which this column is published may get full information by addressing Julius Miller, Municipal building, New York City.

DWIGHT W. MORROW, a national character, former partner in J. P. Morgan & Co., who has since done excellent work as ambassador to Mexico, began his campaign for the Senate in New Jersey yesterday.

Last night he was to tell the citizens what he thinks about prohibition.

MR. MORROW is able. If he goes to the Senate, he will get for his state anything that is to be got. He understands the art of getting. Many will vote for him because he wants to go to the Senate himself.

Men as rich as Mr. Morrow have usually sent dummies to the Senate, to do what they wanted done. To see such a man willing to go himself is a pleasant change.

Not so long ago the government became much excited because Standard Oil was supposed to be worth "almost a billion dollars," and chopped the big octopus up into several small pieces. Each went its separate way, a little octopus on its own account.

NOW MR. TEAGLE, head of Standard Oil of New Jersey, one of several brothers and sisters, says his company made in 1929, $120,912,794.

That amounts to 5 per cent on $2,400,000,000 and Mr. Teagle says if the oil industry had been wiser in its methods, he would have made a great deal more.

THE REV. JOHN B. KELLY, spiritual director of the Catholic Writers' guild, characterizes the Anti-Saloon league's statement that it was "born of God" as "outrageous audacity."

Father Kelly says that the Anti-Saloon league "when it attempts to flaunt prohibition before Catholics as a moral need it is talking sheer inanities."

THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS appoints a special commission of two Swedes and one Dutchman to study the historic problem of the wailing wall in Jerusalem, cause of so much bitterness between Jews and Arabs.

The Arabs have one of their most important places of worship immediately adjoining the wailing wall where Jews from all over the world gather to lament the fall of Jerusalem.

Arabs have been possession of Jerusalem for centuries, ever since they beat the crusaders. And according to their koran, it is their Holy City also.

PROSPECTS FOR PEACE BRIGHTEN IN INDIAN RIOTS

Government Will Move To Hold Negotiations With Gandhi

SALT RAIDS ARE HALTED IN AREA

Severe Rioting Occurs In Bengal; Many Are Casualties

(By The Associated Press)
BOMBAY, INDIA, May 16.—Indian peace prospects brightened today when announcement was made in liberal quarters of an early expected government move for negotiations with Mahatma Gandhi, civil disobedience prisoner.

A government meeting at Bombay and a secret session of the all-India congress, held simultaneously, presaged decisive action in some direction, it was declared, before the week end.

While these reports were going abroad, Mme. Sarojini Naidu, successor of the Mahatma and Abbas Tyabji, was arrested early today for attempting a salt raid at Kharasana and shortly afterward set at liberty. Mme. Naidu and her band of volunteers had sat in the road outside of the village since yesterday forenoon, when halted by police.

Some of her followers were detained after her release. All were given food and drink, from which they had abstained during the entire time of the roadway impasse.

Violent rioting occurred late yesterday at Mensingh, Bengal, in which about 90 persons were injured. The clash occurred over delivery of liquor and herbs used to make liquor from the government depot to retail shops. Carts with armed guards were obstructed by civil disobedience volunteers. The police charged when the disturbers became violent. The district magistrate was hurt as was the superintendent of police. One officer, four non-commissioned officers and 28 constables.

ROYAL WELCOME AWAITS MOTHERS

French Port Bedecked In Honor Of American Pilgrimage

CHERBOURG, FRANCE, May 16.—This city prepared a magnificent welcome today for 231 American gold star mothers arriving from New York aboard the liner America.

French and American flags were grouped everywhere and all the notables in this district were on hand to give a respectful and appropriate salute. The weather was perfect, the first sunshine after weeks of cloudy skies warming the city. The authorities, as a mark of respect, agreed to waive all port charges for the mothers.

Broadway to the Knights of Pythias building, 154 N. Broadway. In this location they will have more centrally located and will have greater facilities for handling the treatments given people, many of whom come from long distances.

Superstition Topic By Kiwanis Speaker

The majority of superstitions of present-day life can be traced back to pre-historic days and periods of Greek mythology. Atty Charles G. McCorkhill told members of the Salem Kiwanis club at the Memorial building Thursday.

McCorkhill discussed the many superstitions present among races throughout the world in his address and traced the history of those most common to American life.

He was introduced by Dan Pearson, chairman of the meeting. The club accepted an invitation of the Rotary club to attend a meeting on Tuesday, June 3, at the Elks home.

Tariff Fate Hangs In Senate Vote Balance

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 16.—The fate of the tariff bill hung today upon a senate vote on the question of giving its conferees a free hand in their negotiations with the conference committee of the house.

Deadlocked on the senate's amendment to revoke the authority of the president to proclaim emergency tariff changes, the Republican conferees sought to be released from a previously imposed restriction binding them to insist upon this provision.

The house conferees, meanwhile, stood steadfastly upon their decision not to carry the negotiations further until the representatives of the senate were given authority to work out a compromise.

Congressional leaders were convinced that rejection by the senate of its conferees' request could only have the result of killing the tariff bill, the product of 16 months of effort, in conference.

The move of the Republican conferees was opposed by the leaders of the Democrats and of the independent Republicans, but while the former were confident of mustering a majority, the latter were not so certain. Regular Republican leaders were frankly worried.

The amendment, together with the expert debenture plan which is also in dispute, were written into the bill by the Democratic-Independent Republican coalition last fall when it concededly was in control of the tariff situation in the senate.

Favors State Control Of Liquor Problems In United States

WOULD VOTE FOR REPEAL OF LAW

Stands For Enforcement As Long As Law Is In Effect

(By The Associated Press)
NEWARK, N. Y., May 16.—Dwight W. Morrow, ambassador to Mexico, who is seeking the Republican nomination for the United States senate, favors repeal of the eighteenth amendment and a return to state control of liquor traffic.

In a speech last night in Krueger's auditorium, he described conditions after 10 years of federal prohibition as deplorable.

"It is not fair to assume," he said, "that all resentment against national prohibition is due to a desire for unlimited license for the intemperate. There is no community in the United States that desires that. The resentment is due to the feeling that an unreasonable control is being imposed."

"States or subdivisions of states whose sympathy is not with the law feel themselves relieved of responsibility for enforcement. They leave to an overburdened federal government, with a wholly inadequate police force, the task of carrying out a great social reform which before 1920 all the communities of the land, in one way or another were wrestling with."

Has No Panacea
"I bring you no panacea for this deplorable condition. I know of no magical solution. I cannot, however, stand before my friends and neighbors and ask for their suffrage without having them know my attitude toward this problem."

"First I believe that the way out of the present difficulty is to repeal the present prohibition law."

Fleming, a former Negro Republican ward leader, surrendered late yesterday to begin serving 33 months, but was released from the county jail last night under $3,000 bond after his son, Wallace, raced from Columbus with a state supreme court writ granting a stay of execution. The state tribunal Tuesday denied Fleming's last appeal and ordered him to serve his term, but yesterday granted a stay on constitutional grounds.

Alexander H. Martin, Fleming's attorney, announced he would leave for Washington today to place the case before the United States supreme court. The writ will expire on week after the court convenes, probably May 19.

Had Served But Hours Of Sentence When Action Is Taken

CLEVELAND, May 16.—Freed from jail after serving only a few hours of his sentence, former Councilman Thomas W. Fleming today prepared to carry his appeal from conviction of accepting a bribe to the United States supreme court.

Saloon League Records Public

Collected $5,000,000 In Last Eleven Years, Books Indicate

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The senate lobby committee has made public records of the Anti-Saloon league showing the collection by that organization of $5,553,588 in the last 11 years, with the Kresge foundation of Detroit the largest individual contributor.

A list of those contributing more than $1,000 since 1927 showed that the foundation had given the league a total of $106,250 since 1928 and that, in addition Stanley S. Kresge of Detroit, had contributed $10,000.

F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the league, supplied the figures to the committee at its request.

penings, there must be unity about the form and import of that day to the early Christians and the church from that day to the present time.

Power Not From Earth
The power was not from the earth, that needs to be plainly understood, it was not the house however sacred that brought the experience. It was not the disciples that caused this new life to enter into the church. It was not the large crowd of strangers who had come to Jerusalem. It was power from heaven, power from God through the special appearing of the Holy Ghost, the second person of the Trine God.

That it was not a vague dream and fancy of the disciples, we have the testimony of the strangers from different lands. No one present could doubt that some strange experience had occurred. (Continued on Page 7)

MOTHER-SLAYER DIES SUDDENLY

Woman Who Killed Seven Children Stricken While In Jail

COLUMBUS, May 16.—Mrs. Ethel Geller, slayer of seven of her 11 children, died suddenly in Franklin county jail today of internal hemorrhage which physicians said they believed resulted from a self-inflicted bullet wound.

Mrs. Geller was taken to the jail several days ago from a local hospital where she was treated for the bullet wound, caused when she turned the small rifle on herself after slaying the children.

Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson, night matron at the jail, heard Mrs. Geller moaning early today and on investigation decided to call a physician. When the latter arrived, Mrs. Geller was dead.

She was held in the jail on a charge of first degree murder resulting from the slaying of six of her children by a negro husband, and an incompetent child by her first husband, a white man. Four other children by the white man were spared.

CLAIM PARITY NOT EXISTING IN AGREEMENT

Concessions In Cruisers Vital To Defense Of Nation, Claim

SENATORS QUESTION ADMIRALS ON STAND

Treaty As Now Standing Not One Of Parity, Is Statement

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 16.—The cruiser provisions of the London naval treaty were bombarded with objections today by two high officers of the navy, who disclosed that the American negotiators accepted three less eight-inch gun ships than the navy general board had set as the national defense minimum.

Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, chairman of the board, told the senate foreign relations committee that the treaty did not represent parity with Great Britain nor a proper cruiser ration with Japan and that the best thought of the navy had been brushed aside at London.

Appearing successively before the naval and foreign relations committee, rear Admiral Hilary P. Jones said a "vital" and "fundamental" concession was made when the American delegation took 18 eight-inchers in place of 21 "reluctantly" agreed to by the general board last September in a memorandum to President Hoover.

Opinions Conflicting
Both Jones and Bristol, whose opinions do not accord with those of Admiral Pratt, commander of the United States fleet, were hammered mercilessly with cross examination by senators friendly to the treaty. Repeatedly they questioned the accuracy of the admirals' testimony.

Bristol epitomized his views under the questioning: "Does this treaty give us parity?" "No."

"Is it necessary that the 5-3 ratio with Japan be maintained?" "That is my belief."

"Does the London treaty retain that ratio with Japan?" "It does not."

WASHINGTON, May 16.—Ambassador Dawes will return to the United States shortly for conferences with President Hoover on the London naval agreement.

CHURCHILL NOT FOR NAVY PACT

Terms Signing Of Treaty A "Melancholy" Act; Debate Refused

LONDON, May 16.—Unusual weight was accorded today to criticism of the London naval treaty by Winston Churchill against the London naval treaty, but there was question as to how completely Mr. Churchill, a former conservative chancellor of the exchequer, spoke for his party.

A series of attempts were made by labor members to draw Stanley Baldwin, the former conservative prime minister, into the debate which began last night with Mr. MacDonald's praise of the treaty as laying the foundation for international disarmament. Mr. Baldwin, who technically at least, is leader of his party, refrained.

"I submit," said Mr. Churchill, "that in proposing a treaty binding ourselves to definite naval inferiority to any power, the government has gone beyond what was right or wise."

Signature and ratification of this treaty will be a memorable and melancholy event in our history."

AND WHY NOT?

There has been a great deal of comment, much of it facetious, following an order by Acting Secretary of War F. Trubee Davison authorizing the quartermaster general to procure for a service test a mechanical substitute for an army band manufactured by a large American radio concern. The apparatus is said to develop a sound volume equal to that of two large bands and, if adopted, will be used at posts having no bands, as well as at service schools, flying fields and recruit depots. There would be no reduction in the present personnel of army bands.

Truck music is entirely consistent with the mechanization of the military in other departments. Chemists and mechanics now work where horses once plumed and swords waved. And a drum major might be a legitimate sacrifice to efficiency if the time ever comes when the army decides to get along without bands all together. When the tune truck is not working it is not eating, it is not wearing out. Its tunes can be struck up at will, no waiting—not even the slight delay while the players find another piece of music.

But what a pity if the unmatched thrill which a well-trained band never fails to excite should be lost to posterity. It is at best difficult to imagine a crowd of boys chasing along behind a sound truck with the same enthusiasm they display today in following a band. To take the point further it is difficult to imagine those same boys grown up to patriotic citizenship without the aid which well-played band music gives to emotional development.

Phonograph and radio music have supplanted to a considerable extent the home-made music which used to mean so much to family gatherings. Stage entertainments, likewise, has come to the point where as often as not the "canned" product is heard instead of the "home-grown." There surely should be many second thoughts however, before any steps are taken which might weaken the unique position of the military band. Even efficiency must halt when it infringes upon human values.

A New York life insurance company has set the economic value of a boy at the time of his birth at $9,333, and holds that it increases progressively to $28,654 by the time he is 18. It is manifest that in some cases an awful slump must have set in shortly after the latter age.

A cable from Hamilton, Bermuda, says that Mayor Walker of New York is avoiding all social and official functions. Life must seem queer to James when it offers him no opportunity to show up late!

New York City experts have announced that experiments conducted by them demonstrated that noise lowers efficiency ten per cent. At last we have a scientific explanation of what's ailing the senate.

What Others Say

CROOKS FEAR RAILROADS—It is the certainty of continued pursuit and assurance of conviction when caught that terrifies criminals. Some unthinking crooks may rush into trouble, not counting on the after results, but brainy crooks are sure to count the chances for escape as they plan their raids. If the chances for escape are desperate the philosophic crook turns away from the job under consideration. The chances for escape and the chances for winning in court, if caught, are known and understood by criminals.

Not many years have passed since railroad robberies were numerous. One may recall with ease the great express robberies on the western railroads. Those robberies do not occur, have not been tried in recent years. Railroad robberies have become unfashionable. It is easy to learn the reason if one reads history.

Nine men were in the gang that had a hiding place in Jackson's hole, Wyoming, and from their cabins made a number of startling and successful raids during the nineties. When they made their last raid on the Union Pacific, a group of special officers took up the trail, and held to it for nearly three years. In that time each of the nine men had been located and killed in resisting arrest. The chances for escape were minus in that operation. Not an officer was harmed in the long gun-fighting chase.

During the last decade railroad robberies have decreased 93 per cent, and that change took place while robberies in other lines had a wonderful increase. During the decade 97 per cent of the railroad robbers tried in court were convicted. The three per cent chance for escape with life, loot and liberty took all the attractiveness out of railroad robbery. It was the strength, persistence and certainty of the law that brought these fine results. Crooks fear the railroads, their police officers are too determined and persistent.—Ohio State Journal.

FOREWARNED IS FOREARMED

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

RICH DIET CAUSES ACNE

Health is an important matter, perhaps the most important thing in the world. Without it nothing seems worth while. Those who lose it would give everything to regain it.

Many persons write me during the course of a week asking about the various diseases. One letter has just come to my desk asking about acne, that very common skin trouble of young people.

The underlying cause of acne is impaired health from one cause or another. All imperfections of the skin are likely to indicate that something is wrong with the choice of foods, or with other habits of living. Neglect of the diet leads to many ills.

Acne is a disease of the "sebaceous glands." These glands are scattered over the skin, being located wherever the hair grows. At the base of each hair there are one or two glands. They furnish the hair with an oily or greasy material, lubricating it and keeping it soft. Without this oil the hair would be brittle and readily broken.

Many boys and girls from the age of 12 to 20 are made miserable by the skin disease commonly known as "blackheads." Pimples and hard red sores frequently accompany this condition, a form of acne.

Very often acne is most persistent. The face is disfigured by the scars of these sores, some of which last for years. It is very embarrassing, too, for it comes at a time in life when young people are becoming interested in social life.

Improper diet has a great deal to do with acne. Children, and many adults for that matter, eat too many sweets and starches and rich foods in general. Too much fats, hot biscuits and nut sundaes are sure to bring their day of reckoning. It is this sort of thing which leads to constipation.

When the diet is made up of such things, there is no appetite for the very necessary foods, like fruits and vegetables, milk, coarse bread and butter. No one can have good health who does not include these in the daily diet.

A person who has a bad skin should drink quantities of water. In this way the wastes of the body are carried away, as they should be. Activity of the bowels and kidneys is most essential.

Exercise in the open air, vigorous enough to cause the skin to perspire, is another important thing. Perfect cleanliness of the skin of head, face and body is very necessary. The victim of acne should take a warm bath daily, rubbing vigorously afterward with the bath towel.

Have a simple diet, with plenty of fresh vegetables and fruits, milk, cereals and only very moderate amounts of meat and fish. Be out-of-doors in the fresh air and sunshine. Get plenty of sleep. All these things are necessary to maintain good health, and as your health improves your skin should also take on a healthier condition.

The Stars Say—

For Saturday, May 17.

The day is characterized by astrologers as one of mixed influences. Although those in the employment of others may push for promotion or preferment, and there is forecast of pleasant and happy personal contacts, there are also signs of friction, contention and duplicity, with new ventures in jeopardy. It would be well to be on guard against all manner of treachery, subtlety and litigation and to sign all writings with great care.

Those whose birthday it is may have a year of flagrant contradictions. While there may be favors and advancement in employment, with pleasant personal relations, yet the year may not be free from strife or underhanded dealings or treacherous contacts. Precaution against fraud, misrepresentation and law is urged. A child born on this day may have many excellent personal traits and social graces, yet it may be disposed to act rashly, impulsively and petulantly. It may be inclined to litigation and to attain ends by sharp or subtle methods.

Asks Rehearing

CINCINNATI, May 16.—Mrs. Josephine Scripps, widow of James G. Scripps, Miramar, Calif., has filed a petition in appellate court here asking a rehearing of her appeal against Robert Paine Scripps, executor of the estate of the late E. W. Scripps, publisher, her father-in-law. She is trying to collect $6,000 from the estate for services rendered by her husband as editor of the Scripps-Howard newspapers. The court recently affirmed a decree dismissing her petition.

Proof Of Marriage Object Of Search

CLEVELAND, May 16.—Records of a city in the south were sought today to establish proof that Mrs. Eunice Mitchart Rockwell is the widow of the murdered Dr. Alfred P. Scully, according to Mark A. Patterson, attorney for the woman. Patterson declined to say in which city Mrs. Rockwell asserted she married the doctor.

Mrs. Rockwell came here from St. Petersburg, Fla., declaring that she and Dr. Scully had been secretly married 15 years ago. She hopes to establish Dr. Scully as the father of her 13-year-old son, Paul, and to share in the slain man's $22,500 estate.

BISHOP CANNON RAPS MORROW

Militant Dry Has Words On Topic; Facing Steck Trial

DALLAS, TEX., May 16.—Apparently unworried by a possible church trial for alleged stock market speculations, and still militant in support of the dry cause, Bishop James Cannon, Jr., today was presiding officer of the quadrennial conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south.

Later in the day a meeting of the episcopacy committee of the church was to be held. Unofficial reports said the committee would announce a decision to bring the bishop to trial. The same source of information declared that the committee announcement had been withheld so that the accused leader would not be called upon to preside while under direct fire of his associates.

On the eve of his expected trial, Bishop Cannon last night took issue with Dwight W. Morrow, in the latter's proposal for repeal of the eighteenth amendment.

I cannot agree with any such plan for repeal of the eighteenth amendment, he said.

"Mr. Morrow declares the 'saloon must not come back' but if the manufacture and sale of intoxicants are legalized in any state there must be breweries, distilleries and places of distribution, whether called saloons or something else."

Speculation, turned today to the possible election of new bishops during the convention, with a number of prominent churchmen outstanding candidates for the places.

Among the prominent possibilities are Dr. W. A. Shelton, of Emory university, Atlanta; Dr. T. D. Ellis, general secretary of the board of church extension, Louisville, Ky.; and Dr. A. J. Moore of Birmingham, Ala.

DE SOTO SHOWS IMPROVED CAR

Large Engine A Feature Of New Model On Display Here

A finer DeSoto Six—with a bigger engine and more power, smarter styling, and a body constructed on entirely new principles—is presented by the DeSoto Motor corporation a division of Chrysler motors.

The models represent the first major change in the original design of this famous car. For 22 months it enjoyed continuous manufacture without alteration, a noteworthy achievement for the original model of any car, and set a new first year sales record for the industry.

Presented in six models, four-door sedan, convertible coupe, business coupe, de luxe coupe, roadster and phaeton, the finer six is offered in addition to the De Soto straight eight, introduced Jan. 4. It is the result of many months of laboratory work and road tests, carried out by the Chrysler Motors engineering staff, under the direction of Fred Zeder, Carl Brer and O. R. Skelton, to develop the basic DeSoto idea to new standards of power, smoothness and perfection of line and body.

IN MEMORY

In loving memory of our Dear Mother Lula Culbertson Blackburn who departed this life two years ago, May 16, 1928. A precious one from us has gone, a voice we loved is stilled; a place in vacant in our home, which never can be filled. God in His wisdom has recalled, the boon His love had given, and though the body slumbers here, the soul is safe in Heaven.

HER CHILDREN.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire in this manner to thank all friends and neighbors for their kindness, sympathy and floral offerings, those who furnished cars, Rev. S. A. Mayer, the ladies who sang, and anyone who helped at the time of the illness and death of our mother and grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Burns.

Bids Soon Open On Highway From Cox To Lincoln Routes

LISBON, May 16.—Bids for the pouring of four miles of 18-foot concrete highway on the North Georgetown-Westville road in Butler and Knox townships will be opened by the county commissioners at 10 a. m. May 31. The estimated cost of the new construction work is placed at $100,973.96. The distance to be improved is 21.149 feet.

The contract for the grading and drainage structures on this road was awarded last season to H. C. Armstrong of Lisbon, and he will finish this portion of the project within the next few days.

The completion of this new concrete highway will give the county another north and south improved highway from the Lincoln Highway on the south at East Rochester north to Westville on the Cox Highway and will be the fifth north and south county wide highway in the county.

The first of this group of north and south highways to be opened was the East Liverpool-Salem road, and the second completed was the Hanover-Salem highway. The East Liverpool-Youngstown road was the third highway opened across the county, and the last new north-south road was the East Palestine-East Liverpool highway.

recognize clearly the fundamental difference between the nature of the federal government and the state government. I believe this involves a repeal of the eighteenth amendment and the substitution thereof of an amendment which will restore to the states the power to determine their policy toward the liquor traffic and vest in the federal government power to give all possible protection and assistance to those states that do not.

Tells of Voting

"If I should be elected to the United States senate I should be prepared to vote for a resolution submitting to the several states an amendment to the constitution in any form that would accomplish the foregoing purpose.

"So long as the eighteenth amendment and the statutes thereunder are the law of the land, I favor generous appropriations for their enforcement.

Mr. Morrow said he favored the use of federal appropriations to keep liquor from entering the country and from passing into interstate commerce, he concluded:

"I look forward to the time when the great moral teachers of the country will realize that there is wisdom in the old system of experimenting in 48 laboratories rather than in one."

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 16.—The announcement of Dwight W. Morrow that he was seeking the Republican senatorial nomination in New Jersey as an advocate of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment was followed by the expression of variety of opinions in Washington.

McBride Makes Statement

F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league denounced Morrow's stand as an "out and out wet platform" and said the question of presenting a dry candidate would be left to the decision of the state organization of the league.

Representative Bachbach, Republican, dean of the New Jersey delegation in congress, said he approved Morrow's position but that he could not comment on any substitute plan for prohibition without giving the project thorough study.

The opinion that the country would not agree with Morrow was expressed by Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, the author of the Jones law providing heavy maximum penalties for offenders against the dry laws.

Morrow's stand was termed "good judgment" by Representative Graham, Republican, Pennsylvania, and avowed wet.

In Seven Weeks Konjola Scores Fine Victory!

Cleveland Lady Relates Happy Experience With Modern Medicine—Had Stomach Trouble

MRS. E. L. JOSEPH

"I am not only a pleasure but a duty, I think, to make public my happy experience with 'Konjola,'" said Mrs. E. L. Joseph, 1309 Hayden avenue Cleveland. "For several years my digestion was far below normal, and as medicine after medicine failed me I became suddenly worse. For four weeks I lived on practically nothing, for whatever I ate my stomach rejected it. I became weak and nervous, and was greatly worried over my condition.

"A friend urged me to give Konjola a chance, and though I had little faith left in any medicine, I took her advice. How glad I am that I did! The second bottle of Konjola revealed that this was the very medicine I needed. Thereafter improvement in my condition was rapid, and in seven weeks, my stomach was as strong as ever. What a joy it is to be able to eat whatever I like! I am gaining in strength and weight and know what it is to have health again."

Konjola is not designed for more temporary relief. Quickly it goes to the source of the ills of the stomach, liver, kidney, and bowels and of rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness. When taken over a period of six to eight weeks the results will amaze those with even the most stubborn ailments.

Konjola is sold in Salem, Ohio, at J. H. Lease Drug Co., 3 Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv

MERGER SURVEY WITNESS CALLED

James A. Campbell Will Be Asked To Give Deposition

YOUNGSTOWN, May 16.—James A. Campbell, veteran chairman of the Youngstown Sheet and Tube company, was expected to be called upon for additional details of the moves leading up to the vote to merge Sheet and Tube with the Bethlehem Steel corporation in a deposition hearing here today.

The depositions, continued from yesterday's hearing at Cleveland, are being taken by attorneys for Cyrus S. Eaton, leader of the fight to invalidate the consolidation in the courts.

Campbell, Frank Purnell, president of Sheet and Tube; Eugene C. Grace, president of Bethlehem, and H. G. Dalton, director in both companies, drew up the merger contract without previous authorization of Sheet and Tube stockholders or directors, it was testified at Cleveland by Dalton.

Dalton also testified that Pickands, Mather and Company, of which he is a partner, bought approximately 60,000 shares of Sheet and Tube stock for about $7,000,000 to be voted in favor of the merger. This was done to meet the challenge of Otis and Company, which was lining up proxies for the anti-merger forces and also because it was believed a good investment for Pickands-Mather, Dalton said.

Hall is a graduate of Ohio Northern university law school of the class of 1922 and is now associated with the law firm of Billingsley & Moore, at Lisbon. The date of the wedding has not been determined, but will be an event of the coming summer.

County Apple Crop Appears Plentiful

"Indications are that the apple crop this season in Columbiana county will be one of the best in years," declared County Commissioner Frank Bye of Middleton township, and one of active orchardists of the county.

Commissioner Bye said that the trees for the most part have had a good bloom, and that the cold weather of a few weeks ago has done no harm.

The apple crop in Columbiana county last year as well as the peach crop was below normal. Small fruit is showing up well in all of the eastern townships, and this harvest will be shipped to the Youngstown, East Liverpool and Pittsburgh markets by truck.

COLUMBUS, May 16. — H. H. Franklin, president of the Franklin Motor Car company, Syracuse, N. Y., was in a hospital here today recovering from injuries received in an automobile accident near South Charleston last night.

His machine collided with another occupied by three Clevelanders who declined to give their names. Franklin's chauffeur, Elmer Rinehart, was taken to a Springfield hospital with minor injuries, while the Clevelanders were treated at a doctor's office. Franklin suffered fracture of the jaw and nose.

Pentecost

course, it was not fully understood. We cannot understand it today. However facts and experiences that baffle our explaining powers are just as real as those that seem simple to us.

Now as to further evidence of the power of Pentecost, may we cite several facts.

FIRST—The size of the Christian church.

Growth Is Rapid

We acknowledge that fact that there was only a miserably small group of disciples at the time of Christ's death. Yes, before Pentecost the disciples could gather in the upper room and probably not be so very much crowded. Now after Pentecost, it was not long until the number of Christ's followers were so numerous that no building of that day could hold them. There was power at that Pentecost.

But the power sometimes wastes away. Not so with this first century experience. In spite of what naturally might be expected to happen, the momentum and enthusiasm of Pentecost increased. Think of it. Christianity conquered the Roman Empire in three centuries. The power of Pentecost was mightier than the Roman legions and the emperor.

Today the Kingdom of Christ reaches out to every known spot on the earth. At the beginning of 1922 the estimated Christian population of the world was 564,510,000, approximately one-third of the world's population. Pentecost has shown its power in its expansive work.

Power Is Shown

SECOND—The continuity of the church shows unspeakable power. She stands amid the ruins of long forgotten events. She builds upon foundations that rest upon her persecutors and enemies. She shall rise to greater glory when her opponents have gone the way of destruction. Jesus said, "The gates of hell shall not prevail against her." The old hymn of 1839 expressed a truth, in these words:

"O where are kings and empires now.

Of old that went and came?

But Lord, Thy Church is praying yet.

A thousand years the same."

THIRD—The work of the church shows the power of Pentecost to be unique and insurpassable.

The gift of tongues was a peculiar phase of the first Pentecost. We may not be fully capable to fathom the facts of this experience. It seems that since that day has a similar experience occurred. This need not make us doubt the facts as recorded in scripture. This was a special day, so why not a special manifestation. He who gave men the power to speak could surely loose the tongues of His servants that they might speak in many languages.

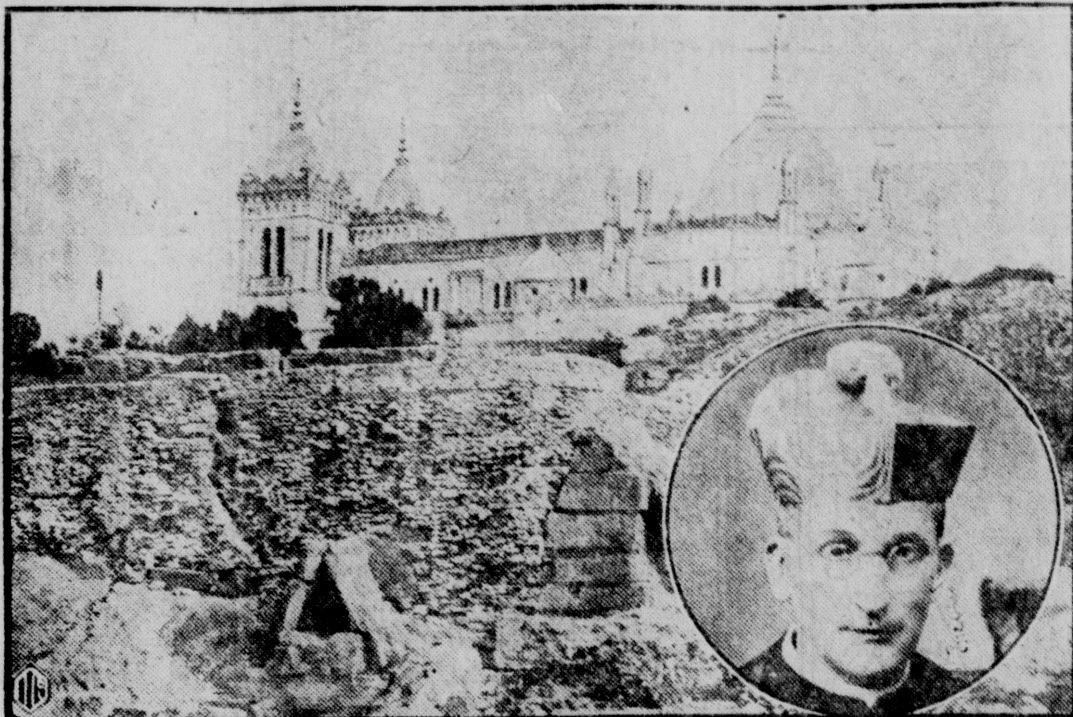

Souls Were Saved

The greatest work was the saving of souls. There were 3000 souls born into the kingdom that day. Their souls were saved. The Holy Spirit was the means of driving conviction into their hearts.

This soul saving work is the summary of the work of the church today. The church is God's way of defeating the purpose of Satan and sin. The church speaks nobly of the power of first Pentecost that God made possible.

We as Christians are privileged this year to celebrate the 1900th anniversary of the founding of the church as an institution by Jesus Christ. Very few living today will be so honored again. May the power of Pentecost be felt today and throughout the coming ages.

Ruins Glow as Eucharistic Congress Opens

The once powerful city of Carthage saw its ruins transformed into a scene of great animation on the occasion of the opening of the thirtieth International Eucharistic Congress.

Above is pictured the white cathedral of St. Louis, which formed an impressive background for the opening of the congress. (Inset) Cardinal Lepicier of France, who is Papal legate to the congress. The next congress will be held in Dublin in 1932.

STOP CONSTIPATION AT THE START

You May Pay If You Don't

When you realize that about 90% of all sickness begins with constipation, you won't want to take chances. If you have the symptoms—bad breath, coated tongue, always tired—put a stop to them now!

But do it the natural way. Not with pills and drugs, which give but temporary relief and must be taken in increasing doses. Eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—an appetizing deliciously flavored cereal.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN sweeps the system clean of wastes and impurities. Its action is natural; the roughage carries with it the poisons which clog your system.

In addition, ALL-BRAN is rich in iron. Scientific research shows that nearly all this iron goes into the blood, making it give the rich glow of healthy color.

You'll like ALL-BRAN. Ready-to-eat with milk or cream—fruits or honey added. Physicians recommend it. And we guarantee it to relieve both temporary and recurring constipation. Two tablespoons daily—with every meal, in recurring cases.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold by all grocers in the red-and-green package. Served in hotels, restaurants and dining-cars. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Hooked rugs are no longer in the antique class—suitable only for a home done up consistently in a particular American period. The manufacturers of rugs are now producing patterns and fabrics that are as lovely and homey as the rugs of an earlier day. Indeed, come current hooked rugs combine the softness of wool yarn such as characterized the antique hooked rugs, with modernistic patterns and lively colors. The result is that these can now be used in almost any kind of a room—provided of course the pattern does not clash.

However, for the country cottage almost any kind of hooked rug is in good taste. The variety of colors—and the vividness and variety make the beauty of a hooked rug—will blend well with the cheerful informality of the country cottage. In addition, there is real warmth and softness in these floor coverings—a helpful factor when one has simple wood floors and the rug must be more than merely decorative.

Occasionally one has the good luck to pick up an antique hooked rug, and fortunately, even if it does happen to be a bit worn, it will not conflict with the spick and span hooked rug manufactured today—if one chooses the new rug with the colors of the old as a guide. Nor should the patterns be violently different. The old hooked rugs were made in many patterns—some simple conventionalized flowers and

IF YOU HAVE BAD FEET

Read What This Grateful English Woman Writes About Radox

"Fifteen years ago I began to suffer with bad feet and corns, and as time went on they got from bad to worse, thus making life a misery. I was recommended to try Radox (after spending a small fortune in one 'cure' or another). I found very great relief in a very short time. I am pleased to say that my corns, also the hard skin from the soles of my feet have disappeared, and walking, which was a torture, is now a pleasure. I can assure you that I recommended Radox to all my friends."

Mrs. L. P. W.,
Peterborough, England.

23rd September, 1929.
When you put your feet into a footbath containing Radox, the salts soften the hard outer layers of the corn, and the oxygen which Radox liberates enters the pores, opens them and penetrates further and further, carrying the corn-softening salts right into the root of the corn, which is thus loosened so that it can be lifted off bodily.

Get a generous box of Radox at J. H. Lease Drug Co., Three Stores, or any drug store in America—a 15 minute bath three or four successive nights will rid you of corns and callouses.

Masefield, New British Poet Laurette, Was Bartender, Sailor, Beachcomber In Youth

JOHN MASEFIELD

KING GEORGE V ROBERT BRIDGES

THE hands that once polished the brass in a Greenwich Village saloon are now penning poems for a King.

Sailor, barroom porter, carpenter and beachcomber, John Masefield, whom King George, of England, has just named his poet laureate, has had one of the most colorful and romantic careers in the history of English letters.

In acclaiming Masefield's appointment, the British press points out that the new poet laureate has already celebrated many aspects of their national life in his verses.

But for the first thirty-five years of his life, John Masefield lived in obscure wretchedness and poverty. Until well past his first manhood Masefield knew only too well what it was to starve and sweat for a few pennies a day.

As a boy and a young man he hobnobbed with seamen, hobsos, and habitués of cheap saloons.

Later to make him famous were then only unexpressed dreams. Whatever work he found he was glad to do. The poems that were side of him.

It was after sailing the seven seas in slow-going tramp schooners, beating his way across the United States on freight trains and swabbing the floors of Luke Connor's New York barroom, that Masefield decided to attempt to eke out a living writing verse.

For years he slaved at ill-paid hackwork before a stroke of luck won him an admiring public. Granville Barker, London theatrical producer, putting on Bernard Shaw's "Captain Brassbound's Conversion," needed some sea chanteys for the play.

A friend told him of Masefield and Barker sent for the sailor-poet. The producer listened to the poet reading his songs and accepted them on the spot.

Later it was his sea-poems that won Masefield his present high place in English literature. His "Sea Fever" is a standard classic and has put his name in every anthology of English poems since printed.

Returning to America a few years ago for a lecture tour Masefield went to the Greenwich Village saloon, now a restaurant, where he had worked.

Walking in, he asked a waiter if he knew of a man named Masefield who had formerly worked there.

"What did he do?" asked the waiter.

"He was a poet."

"I don't know him," replied the waiter, "we haven't any poets here. Greenwich Village isn't the place it used to be."

However, most of the rest of the world has long known John Masefield and his work. His being named poet laureate by his King was only the crowning point in a distinguished career.

"GENERAL CRACK"
At The State

The distinguished peer of present day stage and screen stars, John Barrymore, makes his latest appearance in "General Crack."

His strong characterization in "General Crack," which Alan Crossland directed, is that of a dual personality whose inherent characteristics take turns in dominating his love and hate. Born of a gypsy princess and a powerful nobleman, he is one moment the spirited, carefree nomad, and the next the brilliant, fearless soldier.

It is when the fiery Romany blood in his veins overpowers his royal self that he becomes another Don Juan.

An excellent supporting cast surrounds Barrymore in this swift moving story of royalty, fighting campaigns and gypsy love, which includes Marian Nixon, Lowell Sherman, Hobart Bosworth, Armida, Jacqueline Logan, Otto Matieson, Philippe de Lacy, Andres de Segura, Douglas Gerrard, William Van Brinken, Theodore Lodi, Nick Thompson and Curt Rayfield. Walter Anthony prepared the screen play from the George Preedy novel of the same name.

"General Crack" is partly in glowing technicolor.

"THIS MAD WORLD"
At The Grand

"This Mad World," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer all-talking picture directed by William de Mille, will open tonight at the Grand. The picture, de Mille's first since "The Sign of the Cross," was adapted by Clara Beranger from the French drama, "Terre Inhumaine" by Francois de Curel.

Its cast of five persons, said to be the smallest on record, contains Basil Rathbone as Paul Parisot, French spy; Kay Johnson as Madame Victoria, wife of a German officer; Louise Dresser as Paul's mother; Veda Buckland as Anna, a servant; and Louis Natheaux as Emile, Paul's co-conspirator.

The plot of the film revolves about the conflict between love and patriotism. Pauline Parisot lives in an isolated house in Lorraine. Her son is fighting for the French. Madame Victoria, obviously a royal personage traveling incognito, is billeted at Pauline's house where she intends to meet her husband, a general in the German army.

When Paul returns home on an espionage mission he discovers that Victoria suspects him and rather than betray his mission and his mother, he determines to kill her. He lures her into the woods for this purpose, but circumstances arise which give the situation an entirely new twist resulting in a surprise climax.

Trouble!

There's trouble in store for the woman who sews or reads, unless she has good light—light that enables her to see without effort—light that is well diffused to eliminate glare as well as gloom. Head-aches, nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of ability to concentrate are frequently traceable to eyestrain.

It is no economy to skimp on electricity for lighting when electricity gives the best and cheapest light mankind has ever had.

Canton Lady Says Whole System Is Stronger

"Owa-Ton-Na Is the Finest Remedy I Have Ever Tried, Headaches, Nervousness and Rheumatism Corrected"

"For several years my system has been in a sluggish condition. Constipation, disordered stomach, nervousness and rheumatism frequently made themselves felt throughout my body," says Mrs. Bertha Evans, 2916 12th St., N. W., Canton, Ohio. "Sometimes I couldn't help being grouchy and irritable and found it hard to do my work because I was always bothered with a tired, worn out feeling. Food didn't taste right and caused sourness and gas bloating. Headaches would result and I would get nervous."
 "The many things I had tried to correct these disorders didn't help me much. I was finally persuaded to try a bottle of Owa-Ton-Na. The results were almost immediate and after I had taken several bottles, I was really a different person. My appetite improved; gas and bloating spells, which always resulted in headaches and nervousness, disappeared. My bowels function normally every day; kidney disorders, which often disturbed my sleep at night to relieve bladder irritation, showed a marked improvement. Aches and pains in my joints left me. My whole system is stronger and I surely recommend Owa-Ton-Na to other sufferers."

MRS. BERTHA EVANS

If you tire easily, lack energy and the necessary vigor to carry your daily work, you should learn the facts about Owa-Ton-Na. Its results are prompt and sure yet no harmful after effects are experienced from this herbal remedy. Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at J. H. Lease Drug Co. 3 Stores.—Adv.
